As of July 2022, the Department of Fair Employment and Housing is known as the Civil Rights Department (CRD) to better reflect all of the civil rights laws the department enforces. Our new web domain is live: www.calcivilrights.ca.gov. Be on the lookout for updated materials in the coming months!

UPCOMING EVENTS

SEP 22, 2022
Department of Real Estate: Fair Housing for Property Managers Part 1

SEP 19, 2022
Employment Round Table of Southern California: Disability Accommodations Part 1

SEP 23, 2022
Native American Heritage Commission: 2022 Native American Day

SEP 29, 2022
Department of Real Estate: Fair Housing for Property Managers Part 2

AUG 29, 2022
Consulate General of Mexico - Sacramento: Semana de los derechos laborales (Labor Rights Week)

AUG 25, 2022
Shaw Law Group: Workplace Retaliation

NOTE: outreach event information is hyperlinked when available
Appellate Court Rules California Civil Rights Department Not Bound By Private Arbitration Agreements
August 8, 2022
View Press Release

Live Nation and House of Blues Anaheim Settle CRD Workplace Sexual Harassment Investigation For $500,000
July 27, 2022
View Press Release

Court Grants Preliminary Approval of Landmark $100 Million Settlement of California Civil Rights' Department (formerly the Department of Fair Employment and Housing or DFEH) Case Against Riot Games, Inc.
July 25, 2022
View Press Release

Nicola’s Nightclub Agrees to Pay $260,000 to Resolve Allegations Nightclub Managers Sexually Assaulted Dancers
July 5, 2022
View Press Release

DFEH Settles Sexual Harassment Housing Complaint
June 22, 2022
View Press Release

DFEH Settles Housing Discrimination Case Involving Greenbrae Apartment Complex
June 22, 2022
View Press Release

Department of Fair Employment and Housing Sues JPMorgan Chase Bank N.A. for Failure to File Pay Data Report
June 15, 2022
View Press Release

Mitsui Home America LLC Agrees to $100,000 Settlement to Resolve Fair Chance Act Case
June 14, 2022
View Press Release