Legal Authority for Collection and Use of Information

We collect information that may be directly associated with a specific person. We call this "Personal Information," and it includes, names, addresses, telephone numbers and email addresses. We collect this Personal Information through lawful means from individuals who seek to file a complaint with the CRD, and we use this information to establish jurisdiction and to conduct an investigation of any allegations of Civil Rights violations. If you seek to file a complaint, you are required to provide us with sufficient information in accordance with California Government Code sections 11135 et seq., 12900 et seq., and California Civil Code sections 51, 51.7, 52.5, and 54 et seq.

Disclosure and Sharing

We do not sell your personal information. Government Code section 11015.5, subdivision (6), prohibits CRD and all state agencies from distributing or selling any electronically collected personal information about users to any third party without the permission of the user. Any distribution of electronically collected personal information will be solely for the purposes for which it was provided to us, as described below.

We also may share your personal information under the following circumstances:

1. You give us permission.
2. We receive a request from a party with legal authority to obtain the information, such as a subpoena.
3. As authorized by law, it is transferred to / shared with the U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, the National Labor Relations Board, the U.S. Department of Labor, the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development, the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, the U.S. Department of Education, the U.S. Department of Justice, or any branch of the California State Government, or any other local or Federal agency with similar jurisdiction.
4. Non personal information, including the allegations in the complaint document itself, may be disclosed to the public under the California Public Records Act.

What happens to information you submit to us?

The Personal Information we obtain from you will be used for the purposes for which it was provided: to further the CRD's efforts to investigate CRD's attempt to resolve the allegations of unlawful discrimination, harassment and/or retaliation that you filed. The CRD will collect personal information relevant to specific purposes which are enumerated at or before the time of collection, in a privacy notice included on or with the form used to collect personal information. The user has the right to have any electronically collected personal information deleted by CRD, without reuse or distribution. The CRD will not distribute or sell any electronically collected personal information about users to any third party without the user's written consent. Electronically collected Personal Information we gather about visits to our website is used to help us improve the user experience and for basic web metrics of our website.
