LEGAL AUTHORITY FOR COLLECTION AND USE OF INFORMATION

We collect information that may be directly associated with a specific person. We call this "Personal Information," and it includes, names, addresses, telephone numbers and email addresses. We collect this Personal Information through lawful means from individuals who seek to file a complaint with the CRD, and we use this information to establish jurisdiction and to conduct an investigation of any allegations of Civil Rights violations. If you seek to file a complaint, you are required to provide us with sufficient information in accordance with California Government Code sections 11135 et seq., 12900 et seq., and California Civil Code sections 51, 51.7, 52.5, and 54 et seq.

DISCLOSURE AND SHARING

We do not sell your Personal Information. Government Code section 11015.5, subdivision (6), prohibits CRD and all state agencies from distributing or selling any electronically collected Personal Information about users to any third party without the permission of the user. Any distribution of electronically collected Personal Information will be solely for the purposes for which it was provided to us, as described below.

We also may share your Personal Information under the following circumstances:

1. You give us permission.
2. We receive a request from a party with legal authority to obtain the information, such as a subpoena.
3. As authorized by law, it is transferred to / shared with the U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, the National Labor Relations Board, the U.S. Department of Labor, the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development, the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, the U.S. Department of Education, the U.S. Department of Justice, any branch of the California State Government, or any other local or Federal agency with similar jurisdiction.
4. Non Personal Information, including the allegations in the complaint document itself, may be disclosed to the public under the California Public Records Act.

WHAT HAPPENS TO INFORMATION YOU SUBMIT TO US?

The Personal Information we obtain from you will be used for the purposes for which it was provided: to further the CRD's efforts to investigate and attempt to resolve the allegations of unlawful discrimination, harassment and/or retaliation that you filed. Electronically collected Personal Information we gather about visits to our website is used to help us improve the user experience and for basic web metrics of our website.

PUBLIC DISCLOSURE

In the State of California, laws exist to ensure that government is open and that the public has a right to access appropriate records and information possessed by state government. At the same time, there are exceptions to the public's right to access public records.

These exceptions serve various needs including maintaining the privacy of individuals. Both state and federal laws provide exceptions. All information collected at this site becomes a public record that may be subject to inspection and copying by the public, unless an exemption in law exists. In the event of a conflict between this Privacy Notice and the Public Records Act, the Information Practices Act and/or other law governing the disclosure of records, the Public Records Act, the Information Practices Act and/or other applicable law will control.

MINORS

We recognize the importance of protecting privacy where minors (a person under 18 years of age) are involved. We are committed to protecting the privacy of minors and do not knowingly collect Personal Information from minors or create profiles of minors through our website. Users are cautioned, however, that the collection of Personal Information submitted online or in an e-mail will be treated as though it was submitted by an adult. CRD strongly encourages parents, guardians and adults to be involved in the internet activities of their children or other minors they are responsible for and to provide guidance whenever minors are asked to provide Personal Information online. If you believe a minor has provided us with Personal Information, we ask that a parent or guardian contact us at 1-800-884-1684.

SECURITY

CRD has put security measures in place to safeguard and protect your information from unauthorized access, disclosure, and loss. Our policy limits access to Personal Information to employees who have an established business need for the Personal Information including those directly involved in the filing, investigation, resolution and/or litigation of your complaint.

Information that is physically located within the CRD is protected by various security measures, which may include the use of encryption software to protect the security of an individuals' Personal Information during transmission and storage. Personal information is destroyed according to the CRD's records retention policy, and we only retain these records for as long as necessary to fulfill our business need. We train our employees on procedures and management of Personal Information we collect as well as on taking precautions and complying with limitations on the release of Personal Information.

ACCESS AND CORRECTIONS TO YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION

You have the right to review any Personal Information we collect about you. If you request all or a portion of the Personal Information collected about you by the CRD, we will provide you with the Personal Information requested and explain how we use the information. You may request changes to your Personal Information you believe is incorrect by submitting a written request that credibly shows the error. If you believe that your Personal Information is being used for a purpose other than what you intended when you submitted it, you may contact us so we can rectify the misuse. In all cases, we will take reasonable steps to verify your identity before granting access or making corrections.
